Bill Arp Before the Reconstruction Committee His Own Report of His

When I was put on the stand, old Boutwell swore me most fiercely and solemnly to speak the truth, the whole truth, and no- South has lost anthing that way. We got thing but the truth, and I observed that he their labor before the war for their victuals was then entertaining about a quart of don- and clothes and doctors' bills, and we get it ble rectified, and it looked like it had soured | now for about the same. It's all settles on his stomach. Old Blow was settin off on down that way, and your bureau couldn't one side, with a memorandum book, getting | help it. The only difference is in the disready to note down some "garbled ex- tribution. Some of us don't own as many Old Iron Works was Chairman, and when or two now, and they'll all vote 'em or turn

he nodded his Republican head, old Bontwell, says he, "Your name is Arp, I be- told him shouldn't black my boots." lieve, sir? "So called," says I.

"I can't say exactly," says I. "I live "In the State of Georgia," says he, yourself, if you know. The state of the "Never mind, sir," says he. "How old are you, Mr. Arp?" "That depends on circumstances," says I.

"I don't know whether to count the last five years or not. Durin' the war your folksaid that a State couldn't secode, but that while she was in a state of rebellion sh ceased to exist. Now you say we got out, and we shan't get back again until 1870. Aman's age has got somethin' to do his with rights and if we are not to vote. I don't think we ought to count the time. That's about as near as I can come to my age, sir." "Well, sir," says he, "are you familia with the political sentiments of the citizen "Got no citizens yet, sir, that we know o I will thank you to speak of us as 'people.' "Well, sir," says he, "I'll humor you obstinacy. Are the people of your State "Don't speak of it as a State, sir, if yo please. I'm on oath now, and you must ex use me for being particular. Call it a 'sea

Mr. Alp, are the people of your section officiently humbled and repentant to come back into the Union on such terms as we think proper to imposs ?"

"Not much they ain't," says I. "I don think they are prepared for it yet. They wouldn't voluntarily go it blind against you hand. They say the deal wasn't fair and you've marked the cards and stole the trumps, but at the same time they don't care a darn what you do. They've become in different and don't care nothin about you Guy Fawkes business. I mean no respect! you, gentlemen, but I was swore to tell the whole truth. Our people aint a noticin you only out of curiosity. They don't expect anything decent, or honorable, or noble from you, and they've gone to work diggin and dowin and plantin and raisin boy children. Right here the man with a memoranda scratched down a garbled extract, and olloutwell says he: "What do you mean that, sir? What inference do you intend? "I'm statin facts," says I. "You may draw your own inferences. They are raisit boy children. Any harm about that?" Any treason? Can't a boy raise boy children Perhaps you'd like to amend the Constitu tion and stop it. Old Pharaoh tried to stop it among the Israelites, but it didn't pay He finally caught the dropsy in the Red sea. We are raising boy children for the fun of it. They are a good thing to have it the house, as Mrs. Toodles would say "Mr. Arp, are not the feelings of y people very bitter towards the North; "I beg your pardon, sir, but you'll ha split the question, or else I'll have to sp the answer. Our people have a very hi regard for honorable men, brave men, e-hearted men, and there's a heap of North, sir; and there's a heap of widows at orphans there we're sorry for; but as for the here Radical party, they look upon 'em li they was hyenas scratchin' up the dead to livin'. It's as natural to hate 'em as it is kill a snake. It is utterly impossible me to tell the strength and length and hig depth and breadth of their contempt for th party. They look upon a Radical asas-well, as a beggar on horseback-a burard sailin' round a dead eagle-a suck-e dog creepin' up to the tail of a dead lie They talk about hirin' Brownlow to ab em, to use language on 'em, like he did few years ago when he spoke against Pry-If they do hire Brownlow he'll spatter 'e he'll daub 'em all over, and slime 'em an slobber 'em about right, and it will stick for the pores are open and their mora spongy. I'd like to stand off about ten reand hear him spread himself. It would? worse than a squirt-gun full of cow slop and I have no doubt would give general as

"That's sufficient, sir," says old Boutwel Ef it was in their power to do so, would our people renew the fight?" Not unless they could light the Radica ill alone, and all the world would agree to hand off.' Even then there wouldn't be r fight, for we couldn't cotch you."

"What do your people say upon the sul-ject of negro equality?" "They say it's a lie, sir-it don't exist nature and never can in practice. Folk vere not created free and equal. That may be a theoretical truth, but it's always been practical lie. There's grades in socie everywhere. There's men I give the side walk to, and there's men that gives it to me Phere's men that I vote, and there's mer that vote me, and the grades go up, up, u step by step, from my sort to Mr. Davis a Stephens, and Gen. Lee, and Howel Cobb, and Ben. Hill, and their sort; t they are the highest in the nation; and the again it goes from me down, down, down to he niggers, and the Republicans and th Radicals, and that's as low as they run There ain't no equality, and you can't make We'll vote the niggers, certain. I' vote Tip, and Tip is a 'head centre.' He' vote about forty, and the first thing yo know we'll elect seven hig, black, greas niggers to Congress. We'll do it certainseven of 'em, 18 carats strong, with Africa musk. The other rebel States will do the ame thing, and you'll have about fifty em to draw seats with, and you can all stiel your legs upon your desks together, and swap lies and vermin, and be shampood at he same shop, and the fair sexes can set to gether in the galleries and mix odors, an in their scent about promiscoous. We' rive you a full benefit of your Civil Right ill, see if we don't. You go on-pla our cards. We are biden our time. "We are payin your taxes, and your duti and back rations for 1864, and licenses, as our infernal revenue, and obevin your lawwithout havin any hand in makin 'em, ar we are cut off from pentions, and pubands; and you sold a poor man's still my county the other day because he could your tax on some peach brandy tilled two years ago; and soon you'll sellin the land for the land tax, and you'r tryin your very best to play the devil gene dly, but you'll cetch it in the long run. you don't. Talk about Fenians. Whe e good people of the North and of the outh all get together, they'll walk over the track so fast that you wont have time to ge out of the way. You'll subside into curity, and your children will deny th their daddies ever belonged to such a party Excuse me, gentlemen, but I am a little ecited. Five cents a pound on cotton wi excite any man who makes it. Tax on in ustry on sweat and toil. Protective tarif for Pennsylvania and five cents a pound tax on Southern cotton-half its average worth and your folks will manage some way o other to steal the other half. My advice you is to quit this foolishness and begin to travel the only road to peace."

Old Blew couldn't keep up with bled extracts. What makes the President so popular a the South?" "Contrast, sir-contrast. The more b ain't like your party, the more popular he is He would treat us about right, I reckon, i on would let him alone, but you bedevil him so, that sometimes he don't understand himself. I don't think he knew for a while whether his Peace Proclamation restored the writ of labeas corpus or not. But do your go on and impeach him, and that will bring matters to a focus. I'll bet you'd be in Fort Delaware in a week, and the Southern members be here in their seats, and the 'll look round at the political wreck and ruin and plunder and stealage that's been going on, and they might exclaim in the language o the poet-

"Who's pin here since I'sh pin gone?" "Mr. Arp, suppose we should have a war with England or France, what would the rebels do?"

"They'd follow Gen. Lee, and Gen. Johnston, and Longstreet and Bragg and Bory. My opinion is, that Gen. Lee would head the Union Army, and Gen. Grant would be his chief of staff, and Gen. Buell would rank

"If he was one of your sort, they would make him take the Chairman, Thad's picture, condemn him to hang it over his bed post, so he might dream of devils, and se onkeys and have delirium triangles." Do you think, Mr. Arp, that if the outh should ever hold the balance of power, they would demand pay for their negroes? "I can't say, sir. But I don't think the as we psed to, but everybody has got a negro 'em off. A nigger that wouldn't vote as I At this time the committee looked at on
